Are you a Veteran

who is at-risk of homelessness or homeless?

The Supportive Services for Veterans and their Families program at Okanogan County Community Action would like to help.

The Veteran program provides temporary financial assistance for current and past rent, rent deposits, utility bills, utility deposits, bus passes, vehicle repairs, moving costs, household goods, and emergency supplies to qualifying veterans throughout Okanogan County.

Our Veteran advocates also network with other local and VA resources to assist our Veterans so they can receive the help they need.

If you are a veteran or know a veteran that may need help, please call Community Action today at
