Conconully's three restaurants, in conjunction with the community's Little White Church, are sponsoring a fund-raising event Sunday, May 7, to aid in rebuilding houses lost during the 2015 Okanogan Complex fires. The event is part of the statewide United Methodist Up from the Ashes campaign to underwrite construction of at least six homes through the Okanogan County Long Term Recovery program.

Theme for the local project is Drive Up! Eat Up! Build Up! Organizers point out the scenic drives on Sunday, eating out on Sunday, and helping neighbors to build and rebuild are a combination of traditional practices of the area

The Long Term Recovery Group is completing its work with uninsured and underinsured victims of the 2014 Carlton Complex fires. Restoration is beginning for those who lost everything in 2015. The Red Rock and Sit-n-Bull saloons will serve participants from Noon to 4 PM. Hours for the Salmon Creek Bistro are 11 Am to 3 PM. Hosts from the church will be present to welcome and inform diners about reconstruction plans, activities, and costs.
